The founders of TOVEK are handing over their positions to the younger generation.

The company TOVEK, spol. s.r.o. celebrating 30 years on the market, is facing an exceptional moment in its history. The founders of TOVEK started this journey with a vision that brought them together and allowed them to rise to the position of a leading developer and supplier of a top analytics platform. Today, after three long decades, they have decided to hand over the helm of this amazing ship to younger colleagues.

The company's president, Tomáš Vejlupek, explains: "We made this decision with a deep conviction that our company has the potential to achieve even greater success. We have full confidence in our successors, who will lead our company into the future with their energy and new ideas. Together we have created something amazing and now it is time for a new generation to take the helm and continue our successful journey."

The current head of development, Bořivoj Kostka, confirms his words and adds: "During these thirty years, we have gone through many challenges and successes. Efforts and hard work have made us what we are today. But the important thing is that we always remembered our roots and the values that brought us together in the beginning. Our goal is to ensure that our company remains innovative and prosperous for decades to come. We believe that our successors will bring new ideas and energy to carry this mission forward."

For nearly two decades of the company's existence, customer support was led by Eva Kostková. She played a key role in building a strong team in this department. Thanks to practical professional knowledge and skills in the field of solving technical problems, she has gained respect and recognition of customers. She is now passing on experience and know-how to her successor so that TOVEK can continue to provide excellent technical support to customers.

The company's management now includes the most experienced employees who, with their dedication and energy, have been helping to move the individual departments of TOVEK forward for many years.

Jiří Šplíchal, who until now has brilliantly led the development of Tovek Tools, will become the new head of the entire development. His years of experience and passion for technology are the key to innovative growth.

Tomáš Šafařík has long been a prominent face of customer support. Now he will take over the management of this important part of the company. His ability to solve problems and care for customers is irreplaceable for TOVEK.

Until now, Miroslav Nečas has devoted himself to business development. He will now take over the management of foreign trade. His skills and talent to build long-term relationships with partners is the key to international success.

The management of sales in the Czech Republic, which has been successfully managed by Miroslav Wiedermann for many years, remains unchanged. Mr. Kostka and Mr. Vejlupek also remain active in
